Summary: Part of my 'scraps' collection. This is similar to 'The Omega Prince' however this one although it's nothing but the beginning, it was supposed to get into detail more of Emil's life as he grew up in the foreign country. . . Again, my word is unlicensed so I can't even continue or access it! Thus, putting it into 'scraps'.

Foreign Adventures

Chapter 1, Dancing Rain

Long Chapter is long...

Full Summary: Emil Steilsson lives in a world where Alphas sit on their thrones, commanding other Alphas, and even Betas. Omegas are left in their homes, used for mainly breeding. There were a few main seats of power- The Asian East, Scandinavia, Britain and there respective frenemies, and the Germanic nations. Though, Emil lived in Norway, locked up in a room being raised by nursemaids. Not once in his life had he met his parents, except for when he was born. His mother died shortly after, and his father died in war. He barely knew his older brother, who was a king. Said king, however, was persued by two other kings, of Sweden, and of Denmark. Lukas had no interest in either of them, or anything then fantasy, for that matter. But when a war breaks out, Emil is suddenly thrown into a new life- honoring others, love, new languages, and being an Omega. Can he handle living in a palace, free to roam, when his whole life before revolved around one room?

It was a strange night, the skies were clear and the moon shone brightly through windows of a quiet castle.
